

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

It's Worth a Stamp

to have a copy of Harrisons' New Catalog for reference. You will turn to it for all sorts of information about orcharding, about varieties, about picking, and selling the crop.

G. A. Harrison tells how to operate a commercial orchard, Hale Harrison writes about marketing, Senator Orlando Harrison sends a personal message. It's worth more than a stamp

To Every Fruit Grower

ONE CENT
STAMP
HERE

Berlin,
Maryland, U. S. A.

RETURN THIS COUPON IF YOU WISH A COPY OF Harrisons' New Catalog

A booklet of 80 pages, full of information about planting, cultivating and spraying fruit trees, picking, packing and marketing the crop. Gives a list of all the best fruits, shade trees, evergreens and other nursery products.
Sent free to all those interested in planting and who will return this card.

Name.....

Street and No.

R. D. No. Town.....

State.....

PUT A 1-CENT STAMP ON OTHER SIDE AND GIVE TO POSTMAN